

June 10, 2004

Mr. Brian P. Lamb
Chairman and Chief Executive Officer
C-SPAN
Suite 650
400 North Capitol Street NW
Washington, D.C. 20001

Dear Mr. Lamb:

Thank you so much for taking some time out of your busy day to meet with myself and my Gonzaga classmates as we strive to improve our leadership qualities and abilities. By speaking to us and sharing from your personal experiences as a leader, you provided us with an invaluable insight into how we can improve ourselves as leaders.

I thought one of your best points was that when we go into an interview we must know what we are talking about, otherwise we will look stupid. I also liked the way that when you posed questions to us, you made us back up our convictions rather than let us simply give a yes or no answer, a good practice for answering questions from a leadership position.

Thank you once again for the time you were gracious enough to share with myself and my classmates. I truly appreciate it and hope that I can apply the lessons I have learned in whatever job I end up with this summer, as well as in my final year at Gonzaga and my years in college.

With kindest regards, I am,

Sincerely,

