

Dear Mr. Lamb,

Aug. 27

Last week while my husband and I were in Newport, we saw where Ross Perot would be on your C-SPAN. It was in either USA TODAY or Wall Street Journal.

We scurried around to find a television set which had a full cable hook-up. It was in the hotel bar. The bartender assured me if we came in that night she'd turn one of the two sets onto C-SPAN.

So at the we had to strain to hear over the re-run of CHEERS final episode, we did manage most of the 2½ hour conversation.

You are surely the finest host in the country. The respect you show to your guests is greatly appreciated by your viewing audience. This fellow Ross Perot is the finest "DUTCH UNCLE" our nation could have. I've carefully read both of his books (surely enough detail for any inquisitive reporter!) and will purchase the next. Thank you for helping me to be informed.
