Dear Brain:

I have been an appreciative viewer of C-Span but have never taken the opportunity to write or call and thank you for such a great service. Unfortunately, I'm writing now because our local cable company has written to say that they are dropping C-Span in the evening and replacing it with the Playboy Channel.

Most people I talk with feel that Viacom is pulling the one high quality cable industry funded program in retaliation for the federal legislation which was passed in congress last year. Fortunately I got to see the congressional debates on that legislation as I have viewed many diverse programs without comment on your channel. I'm really overwhelmed at what a terrific job you've all done and how progressive of you to show people events and let them make their own judgements as well as doing such a really great job informing and explaining the workings of the federal government.

If there is anything you can suggest that viewers like myself can do to influence the local cable company to carry C-Span in the evenings please respond. If there is nothing you can suggest, please take this letter as a thank you for the programming you have offered in the past and keep up the wonderful work you do for the people who are fortunate enough to be able to continue to see your programming.

cc: Sales
