Dear Sir or Madam:

I love C-SPAN. I regularly watch your viewer call-ins, Booknotes, press conferences, Commons Questions Time, and all the other programs you air.

I'm writing because I was particularly impressed recently with your fascinating look at Life in Northern Ireland. I've been interested in that part of the world for many years; and I've read countless books on the subject of the "troubles." But nothing has ever given me such a well-rounded, comprehensive view of Northern Ireland as your program. I turned across it accidentally, and five hours later I was still riveted. I thought the work was outstanding.

I think C-SPAN is invaluable.

Sincerely,
