

S.R. Your guest, Bell Hooks, needs some mental help.
She has a sensitivity that is very ridiculous. She doesn't seem to understand ^{whites} get angry with other white people she thinks is discrimination. The character of people was ridiculous. I wish I had a ¹ for every time a white person has pushed in front of me without saying a word. And why are we afraid of blacks?
It's simple. I was in Wash. DC for many years. I could walk the streets and in the parks without fear. After Martin Luther King hundreds of blacks came to work. Our purses were snatched, our homes were broken into; girls have been raped. Every time I went out at night in Wash. I never knew what would happen. My car was smashed for no reason at all, and she asks "why are we afraid?"
She's got a lot of ego who thinks every white person is evil. She desecrates the flag with swear marks and then she wonders why we find some persons who do that as haters of America. The problem is the airplane. Didn't she say that her friend didn't have the right to be there. The same thing could happen with whites. Why doesn't she go to an African country? She needs help. 11/89

O-PRK

Mr Brian Lamb

Book notes

C-Spon

400

North Capitol St. NW

Suite 650

Washington DC

20001

© USPS 1995