

3 to the population = or, so it seems. Perhaps this is a device to avoid having integrated the news room, or is TV using black people as a stalking horse for homosexuals?

Perhaps fairness is an impossible dream, but it seems that all should be treated fairly.

I do appreciate Cable TV, tho' the commercials do get old and interminable and the bills higher.

The shows of nature are good - at least, the viewing is good. Now, if we could only obliterate the "environment mutes" -! Bless the mute button!

4 Am I the only one who finds it strange that the Supreme Court approves abortion? Since many consider this murder, how can the court justify this? That is like the M.D.'s, who are to preserve life, being in the business of aborting life.

Semantics are odd. The Constitution is supposed to preserve free speech. But the Supreme Court calls the burning (an act) of the flag, free speech. I do wonder what they can have for brains - spaghetti?

Females who have abortions have a choice - not to get pregnant. It is not surprising that bed-hopping is in such
