Att. Mr. Terrence Murphy

Dear Mr. Murphy:

I was pleasantly surprised to hear Rep. H. Gonzalez's name come up on a show with essentially a different topic. Unfortunately, no one requested that you have him as a guest on Call-In. Please, try Ross Perot on Harry King! So much C. Span time has been devoted to the 'symbolic' House 'Bank' issue - while larger issues and scandals - come and go.

As head of the House banking committee he should be well-equipped to answer questions about banking policy now - and in the past several years.

He voted against Garn - St. Germain.

He could talk about the Reagan/Bush (and Clinton - 5) efforts to squelch and then ultimately get rid of Edwin Gray - who, much to the Administration's horror - was looking out for the public's interests regarding S & L's.

And - if that isn't enough - now BCCI, BNK, Iran-Contra, money laundering - etc!

He may have some goofs, too - but that's all the more interesting.

The downside of having him - even a day-long show - or a week - or month would be enough - and you'd need to co-opt NCI from Ross Perot.

Sincerely,
