-- C-SPAN Travels to New Orleans for National Conference of State Legislatures Meeting --

WASHINGTON, D.C.-- C-SPAN cable network travels to New Orleans for extensive televised coverage of the 12th Annual Meeting of the National Conference of State Legislatures (NCSL) August 4-8.

More than 3,000 state legislators and staff members from across the country are expected to gather in New Orleans this month to discuss state and state/federal issues. Beginning Tuesday August 5, C-SPAN plans to provide its nationwide audience with an insider's look at the NCSL meeting with nearly 25 hours of unedited telecasts of conference sessions. C-SPAN viewers will have front row seats to NCSL sessions focusing on public policy issues such as child care, education, pornography, medical malpractice, workforce trends, and hazardous waste.

Headlining this year's NCSL conference are '88 presidential hopefuls -- Sen. Gary Hart (D-CO) and Rep. Jack Kemp (R-NY) -- who will engage in a debate about the changing political priorities. C-SPAN also plans to televise speeches by Lou Cannon, White House Correspondent for The Washington Post and National Public Radio congressional correspondent, Cokie Roberts.

C-SPAN's preliminary NCSL program schedule is as follows:
