Dear Sirs,

my cable system has only been carrying C-Span about 5 years and I enjoy Booknotes committee hearing very much but from the beginning I could see that C-Span was very politically unbalanced in your call-in programs and the Journalist Roundtable programs. It is very clear that 9 of 10 on the call-in programs are conservative and your calls are so screened that the Liberals have very few chances to call in and express our opinions. I know this is true for I have tried numerous times and have never been put on the air. We pay taxes just like the conservatives and probably more than the rich conservatives do and I think ^{we} should not have to be trodden by them and not be allowed our views to be expressed on the call-in + Roundtable programs.

The conservatives always quote George Bush's 75 to 80 per cent approval. They don't say that is on ~~the~~ his personality not what he has done. He's done nothing but cause 23 of our young men to be killed in Panama and ~~not~~ give 5 million of our taxpayer money to build Panama back.
The women from the Sanitt news Service and man from the Insight magazine that was on Brian Lamb's program Mon. night May 7.

were very strong conservatives.
The man would not answer any question that would criticize Bush or the conservatives in any way. He would say I didn't understand the question, a good way to keep from answering.

Brian said Rush Limbaugh would be one of the talk show Hosts. C-Span is interviewing is going to air this month.
That proves how conservative C-Span is. He does nothing from the time he comes on and for two hours does nothing but run people down calling name after name. all what he calls liberal

He also screens his program so nobody who would disagree with him ever gets
on. If one slips through he conveniently goes to a commercial so he can say he don't hang up on anyone.
why did you just pick Gordon Elliot also from new york who follows Rush everyday. He is very likeable humorous and lets anyone who wants to express their opinion whether they agree with him or not. He does not discuss politics like Rush does. I wish you would please put Gordon on also. If you do not know the kind of show Rush does you should listen for 1 day.
He is arrogant, self centered I wish you would please consider having more balance on your programs
