

NORTH AMERICAN B-25J MITCHELL — The Yellow Rose B-25 Squadron of the Confederate Air Force maintains and flies this thirteen-gun example of WWII's most famous twin-engine bomber. This aircraft is painted in the exact color scheme of the 488th Bomb Squadron, 340th Bomb Group, North African Campaign, circa 1943. The aircraft is based in Hondo, Texas.

Photo by RICHARD E. SATCHELL

SIR'S, 111490 1800ES

THANKS SO MUCH FOR "TAKING ME TO" TENT CITY, SAUDI ARABIA WITH THE 211TH. MY THOUGHTS ARE THERE SO MUCH WITH MY KIND OF FELLOW AMERICANS. I WAS ABLE TO EVEN SEE THE COUNTRY SIDE AS IS. YOU HAVE TOPED. CNN, & THE CIVIL WAR.

COLUMBIA STATIO, OH 44028

C-SPAN

400 N. CAPITOL ST., N.W.
WASHINGTON, DC 20001

SPRY 11/90

003964 NOV 20 90

CC: S. Swain; B. Katz

