

May 21st. 1993

C-SPAN

400 N.W. Capital St. 650.
WASHINGTON D.C.

Attention Briam Lamb;

Dear Brian:

Like many others before me, I say thank goodness for C SPAN, It is a pleasure to watch and listen to a program, wahtever it is without the highly paid news anchors telling me what I just heard and saw for myself.. They are very obviously trying to slant the news the way they want to, to influence you. Since C SPAN came into being. it easv to see whv the other major networks try to copy your style with call in shows.

I was reading an old copy of Readers Digest, 1988 copy, when I came across a story of how C SPAN came to be, I think many of your viewers would like to see a short segment on how this came about. I had a friend who was a photographer for the AP, and covered the Democratic Convention in Chicago in 1968 and told how the major news networks, came out to Grant part and stired up the demonstrators just before the evening news broadcast.

Keep up the good work, and the spot light on the politicians, in D.C.

Sincerely,

OCAIA FLA. 34482-6848.

CC FILE:

[REDACTED]
OCALA FLA. 34482-6848

C-SPAN
400 CAPITAL ST. N.W. 650
WASHINGTON D.C. 20001

ATTENTION BRIAN LAMB.

002594 MAY 27 93

