

January 19, 1998

Dear C-SPAN:

I am a graduate student at New York University studying Comparative Politics with a concentration on economic development in Asia.

My question concerns the panels views on the influence that foreign multi-national corporations have on Chinese economic policy given China's wish to move from a centrally planned economy to an economy that follows freer market forces.

I am thoroughly enjoying this program.

Thanks,

[REDACTED]
Master's Degree Candidate
New York University

January 19, 1998

Dear C-SPAN:

I am a graduate student at New York University studying Comparative Politics with a concentration on economic development in Asia.

My question concerns the panels views on the influence that foreign multi-national corporations have on Chinese economic policy given China's wish to move from a centrally planned economy to an economy that follows freer market forces.

I am thoroughly enjoying this program.

Thanks,

[REDACTED]
Master's Degree Candidate
New York University