Dear Mr. [REDACTED],

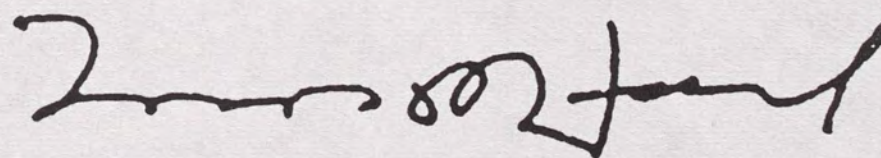

Your most recent letter has been received and read with interest.

Let me reiterate that I have brought your concerns to the attention of the White House. As I have specified in my previous letters, your most appropriate recourse is through the courts. However, sending your December 5 letter by certified mail will ensure that it is received by an official designated by President Reagan. I am confident that he has trusted officials screen his mail and has instructed them on its proper disposition.

Once again, I would refer you to my comments in previous correspondence. I believe that any further comments or action would be needlessly repetitious.

Best wishes.

Sincerely,

Mark O. Hatfield
United States Senator
