The one TV program I looked forward to each week used to be the Primeministers question time. The British Parliament seemed so civilized and pertinent to the problems of today that it cheered me for the whole week. Why, oh why did you stop showing it? I remember once you presented the Canadian parliament, which thrilled me. I only wish you could do the same for the Australian one. Viewers in this country desperately need to be aware of the rest of the world. Please explain to this disappointed viewer why you stopped so suddenly.

Sincerely
