C-SPAN PLANS TELECASTS OUTSIDE SUPREME COURT High Court Hears Abortion Arguments Wednesday, April 26

WASHINGTON, D.C. -- C-SPAN plans live programs from the Supreme Court grounds on Wednesday, April 26 as the high court hears oral arguments in the Webster v. Reproductive Health Services abortion case.

C-SPAN's live coverage from outside the court building begins at 8:00am ET with a live viewer call-in program, featuring Los Angeles Times Supreme Court correspondent David Savage, followed by a 30-minute "Open Phones" segment at 9:30 am ET. At 10:00am ET, C-SPAN fulfills its commitment to live coverage of the U.S. House of Representatives' floor proceedings.

C-SPAN II, the companion network to C-SPAN, will air live coverage from outside the Supreme Court, from 8:00am-1:00pm ET on Wednesday. C-SPAN II will carry live the remarks of the litigants' attorneys as they emerge from the Court for news conferences. C-SPAN II viewers will see a two-camera switched feed -- with ambient sound and no commentary -- of the action outside the Court on the morning that the Webster oral arguments are heard.

At 6:30pm ET, C-SPAN opens the phone lines again for 90-minutes of viewer call-in programs, live from the west face of the Supreme Court building. The news conferences from earlier in the day will reair at 8:00pm ET on C-SPAN.

C-SPAN is now available in 43.5 million households through 3,232 cable system affiliates nationwide and worldwide via satellite. C-SPAN is a public service of the cable television industry.
