To Whom It May Concern:

Since I couldn't get through on the phone this past week, I'll just send this note to compliment you on your excellent coverage of the Republican National Convention in Houston, Tex. It was very refreshing, having no interruptions throughout the evenings. Being able to see all that was going on and hearing all of the speeches made me feel like I was right there in the midst of it all.

It was especially nice to listen and make my own decisions, rather than have commentators explain what was really being said. The comments from your callers after the sessions are really the public reaction, and much more informative.

Thank you — Keep up the good work —
