Dear Brian Lamb and Staff,

If there were an awards program for outstanding achievements in television since (its) inception it would have to go to your American President Series for the year 1999.

Never have I seen such consistently engrossing, informative and thoroughly entertaining T.V. programming in all (my) life and I am 67 years old.

Since mid-way through your series I have been on a one woman campaign to promote A. Span to my very large family and all our friends.

Several (years) ago I embarked on a plan to read biographies and autobiographies of all the Irish Ladies. That was completed in 1998. Now I have
