

I would like to nominate an average normal person for your panel. He is a business person originally from NC, and now the general manager of the Nissan Pavilion in Virginia. He is articulate, intelligent & understands the needs/opinions of the working class 'regular-joe' (^{and for} Josephine!). He doesn't know I'm nominating him, and I don't know if he'd accept, but I do think he would be a positive addition/balance. He can be reached at: (Wilson Rogers, Gen. Manager)

Thank you!
