Dear Mr. Murphy:

I am writing to thank you for providing such extensive coverage of the Gay and Lesbian March on Washington as your network did. I imagine that the decision to do so might have been a difficult and controversial one, and I applaud your taking this step forward. Although I must admit there were many images shown I might have preferred not to see (or have the country see), we are all well to remember, "The truth is our friend." Thank you again for making the truth accessible.

Sincerely yours,
