In re: Comment on Presidents those
Not every President is a rone.
(It wouldn't be an excuse, anyway.)

Coolidge? Hoover? Truman? Carter? Ford?

Reagan? Nixon? Bush? Eisenhower's driver wrote a book - Nothing happened - etc, (FIE on tree)

I enjoy Book Notes with my husband and we look forward to seeing that program.

"Under The Tuscan
Sun" by Frances Maye

is excellent. "The Diving Bell & The Butterfly by Jan-Dominique Bauby—(Vintage International) Translated Random House, Inc.

from the French — Extra-ordinary Small paper back. Would make an excellent gift. New one coming out is about the life of Arthur Conan Doyle. "Teller of Tales", by Daniel Stashower. Never saw a biography of Conan Doyle before. Sherlock was a minor part of his life.

a Sincere Thank you for Book-Notes, and C-spar.
